

In-House Training Venue

Fit to your Organization's Needs

In-House Training

When you choose BULLTEK LTD in-house training venues the program is fitted to your organization's needs. The venue are assembled from our arsenal of programs with the latest information as we monitor technology, evolution of regulations and market trends.

We your organization's needs and challenges are mission crucial so that we can develop a custom-fit solution to satisfy your organization's objectives and challenges. Working with you, we will help to develop your organization's personnel, enhance processes and streamline your system.

The options are open for discussion to fulfill needs, and the tutor is one that has been in contact with you as the venue is in development. Your tutor's competence is based on real world experience while understanding contemporary challenges.

Service Solutions

We need not to claim world leadership in training as we understand that organizations must maximize resources to remain competitive and control and prevent losses.

We are to convey knowledge tacitly. In working closely with your organization from initially understanding challenges and objectives we can help enhance operational and administrative efficiency. Pursuing simplification is at the heart of our work, as it takes genius performance to streamline work. We understand the challenges that the market brings whether in the face of competitiveness or facing risks.

Our training venues includes discussions on moral values and integrity in ethics, as we are require to adhere to anticorruption, antifraud and antitrust laws.

Contact us...

Contact us for an application and budget through our certification programs.

E-mail:

global@bulltek.com or through one of our partners worldwide

BULLTEK LTD

Rim of the World Operations
31977 Hilltop Boulevard,
Suite D—PO Box 1020
Running Springs, California. USA
92382-1020

International TEL;
1+909.867.1188
www.bulltek.com
Since 1984

We are recognized by a USA Public Trust for the protection of communities and consumers.

Benefits to Your Organization

Learning Experience

In teaming with your organization we are about delivering a learning experience through tacit knowledge. In this way knowledge advances to action in ways to benefit clients and their clients, utterly benefits consumers.

Unique

Each in-house training venue is unique—your organization may introduce sensitive, risk-based or market competitive information into the sessions. We sustain a confidential agreement.

Made to Fit

Whether your organization is a multinational, large, medium or small we focus on consumers, communities, simplification, et al for the advancement of the audience.

The Control is Yours

Our learning experience are done through live programs whereas we actually conduct field assessments as part of the program venue. Our programs save time, resources with results.

Flexibility

Our program venues are adaptable as they are effective. We pursue advancing from best-in-class to better-in-class. And the same we convey through our venues; adapt and overcome, innovate, and revamp.

Cost—Benefit

These are transparent and no surprises costs; made to reduce expenses save on travel and accommodations and your organization's personnel time.

Tel 909.867.1188

bulltek.com

